

Dear Mr. President of the USA, please do not be afraid!

Flags of Freedom and Democracy

Dear Mr. President, I am writing to you in a bomb shelter during another massive missile attack by Muscovites. Today (December 16), the terrorist Putin launched 76 cruise missiles at us. The day before, dozens of Iranian kamikaze drones also attacked us. Residential buildings, critical infrastructure facilities were destroyed, railways, cities, villages were de-energized. There are dead and wounded, among them children. Not American — Ukrainian. People were left without water, light and heat. Outside, the temperature is below zero. It is cold in houses and flats.

The deputy head of the Russian Security Council, Dmitry Medvedev, said that almost any objects in Ukraine are military targets for strikes by Russian forces, in particular, civilian infrastructure, bridges, transport stations, roads, energy facilities, factories. He voiced new threats towards Ukraine and the West, while insulting American senators, calling them "Russophobic morons."

Dear Mr. President, are you still thinking about whether to supply Ukraine with modern air defense/anti-missile defense systems, planes, tanks, long-range howitzers, missiles that could be used to destroy military facilities on the territory of Russia...

"So don't be afraid of them..."

Dear Mr. President, I am compelled to address you publicly because of your constant fear of the "soulless murderous Putin" we both know.

As a Catholic believer, you should know the entry in the Gospel of Matthew: "Therefore, do not be afraid of them, for there is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing secret that will not become known" (Matthew 10:26).

Dear Mr. President, do not be afraid of the shadow of the dead Putin!

Do you remember, 11 years ago, in an interview with the magazine "New Yorker", as the vice president, you talked about your visit to Putin in 2011, who was the prime minister of Russia at that time?

"I told him: 'Mr. Prime Minister, I look into your eyes and it seems to me that you have no soul.' He looked at me, smiled and answered: "You and I understand each other," you told the journalist.

I met Putin back in 1990 and I can confirm that he really "does not have a soul". Shaking Putin's hand, I looked into his glassy, fishy eyes for a few seconds. I saw in them the dark abyss of his spiritlessness, from which the grave coldness was blowing... At the same time, the Tibetan wisdom came to mind: "Eyes are the mirror of the soul."

In the archives of the Central Committee of the CPSU, I got acquainted with a memo of the KGB addressed to the General Secretary of the Communist Party Nikita

Khrushchev, that a blind seer from Bulgaria Vanga predicted in the early 60s of the last century that there would be a war in "Ukraine, which would be unleashed by a "dwarf with a black soul" named Vladimir – he will be the ruler of Russia and his end will be tragic...".

Mr. President, I live according to the commandments of my ancient Oriya-Rusyn ancestors:

"Do not be afraid!". "Do not betray!". "Do not be silent!".

"Destroy the enemy of your kind without pity and mercy!".

"Do not believe the wounded enemy and the killer of your brother."

"Hold to righteousness and truth, they will lead to victory."

"Do not repay evil with good. Unpunished evil begets even more — an absolute evil. Evil must be destroyed."

"Everything that depends on someone else's will is evil. Everything that depends on one's own will is good. Your kind must know this brief definition of good and evil."

The key words of the worldview of our ancestors were "Will" and "Creativity".

Grigory the Theologian (one of the church fathers, a great Christian saint) said in his sermons: "God is not in power, God is in Truth. Silence betrays God."

My spiritual teacher, the Athos elder (may his memory be blessed) liked to repeat: "The language of facts (factual language) is the language of God. The language of diplomats is the language of the devil. Which one you choose and you will be...".

I was the initiator of the impeachment of five presidents of Ukraine and demanded to institute criminal proceedings against them. Unfortunately, the majority of parliamentarians had not supported my initiative. Only after the victory of the Revolution of Dignity, one of them, the fugitive Yanukovich, was convicted of treason.

In an interview with ABC News in March 2021, you said that Putin “will pay for his attempts to interfere in the recent American election. You will soon see the price he will pay” and called him a “murderer”.

After Russia's full-scale invasion of Ukraine, you noted that "Putin is a war criminal."

I share your point and add: Putin is the #1 terrorist to be destroyed like Osama Bin Laden.

Our acquaintance

Dear Mr. President, we know each other since 1999. You were a senator and the author of the resolution, which was supported by the Senate, on the start of a military operation in Yugoslavia. I am a People's Deputy of Ukraine and an expert-consultant of the International Public Tribunal, which investigated crimes in Yugoslavia and the legality of bombing and missile attacks by NATO throughout the territory of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia.

We met in the fall of 1999 at an international conference summarizing the war in Kosovo (then we met in the Senate in 2001 and 2003, at which time I also had meetings with your colleagues, Democrat Carl Levin, combat officer, Republican John McCain and other senators). The meetings were good and memorable. Thank you for them...

Washington, 2001. During the meeting of People's Deputies of Ukraine Anatoliy Yermak, Oleksandr Zhir and Hryhoriy Omelchenko (far right) with the U.S. Senator Carl Levin, who captioned the photo "To Grygoriy with the best wishes."

Dear Mr. President, you were one of the speakers at the conference. To my question as a lawyer, why NATO, led by the USA, launched a military operation (from the Serbian point of view, military aggression) against Yugoslavia without a mandate from the UN Security Council, you answered: "Russia repeatedly blocked the Security Council resolutions and NATO was forced to resort to extreme measures, to save the civilian population of Kosovo from extermination by the President of Yugoslavia Milosevic, whose soldiers carried out ethnic cleansing, slaughtered unarmed people, raped women and underage girls...".

You are right, Mr. Senator, - I remarked to you then.

Indeed, in those conditions it was necessary to act immediately, as in a state of necessary defense and extreme necessity to save people. Therefore, on the basis of the resolution of the US Senate (which you were the author of) and the decision of the NATO leadership (without the formal permission of the UN Security Council, which, under the conditions of blockade by Russia, could not adopt any resolution that would force the central authorities of Yugoslavia to stop ethnic cleansing and withdraw regular military parts from the territory of Kosovo) and the decision was taken to conduct a military operation against the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia.

During the meeting of the defense ministers of the member countries of the alliance with the Secretary General Javier Solana, the US Secretary of Defense William Cohen and Solana argued that in order to avoid a humanitarian catastrophe, the need to authorize the operation by a resolution of the UN Security Council should be abandoned.

The military operation, which included bombing and missile strikes throughout Yugoslavia, was called "Operation Allied Force" and lasted from March 24 to June 10, 1999. It became the final stage of the Kosovo War, which led to the withdrawal of Yugoslav troops from the territory of the Kosovo and Mehoti region and its transition to the control of NATO forces, and later the UN.

It is worth reminding

Mr. President, I will briefly remind you and Europe (after all, time flies and much is forgotten) what goals US President Bill Clinton and the NATO leadership set for the military operation "Union Force".

From a military point of view, NATO aimed to conduct an air operation against military installations throughout the territory of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia in order to reduce the Serbian ability to continue repression against ethnic Albanians in Kosovo. Based on this, NATO created a series of strategic objectives for the use of force in Kosovo, which were later presented to President Milosevic as conditions for ending the bombing. Those goals were:

- intimidating President Milosevic from continuing and escalating Serbian attacks on the unarmed civilian population and establishing conditions for eliminating the consequences of ethnic cleansing (neither you, Mr. President, nor NATO had the courage to publicly warn Putin that he will be physically eliminated if he does not stop the destruction critical infrastructure and kill the civilian population of Ukraine. It should have been said that the Black Sea Fleet, military airfields and strategic bombers that launch missile strikes on Ukraine will be destroyed. The same ultimatum should have been made to the political and religious leadership of Iran if they did not stop supplying Russia with missiles and kamikaze drones, and it is better to bomb the factories where they are produced and their storage warehouses. You know their location);

- the destruction of Serbia's ability to wage war against Kosovo and the expansion of military operations on the territory of Yugoslavia's neighbors in the future due to the destruction or reduction of Serbia's ability to conduct military operations (by providing the Armed Forces with the required number of modern lethal weapons in a timely manner, they would have already destroyed the ability of the Russian army to wage war against the civilian population of Ukraine).

According to the US President Bill Clinton, Operation Allied Force had three main objectives:

- demonstration of the Alliance's reaction in response to the aggression in Kosovo (Mr. President, couldn't the USA and NATO really demonstrate something similar in response to Putin's aggression?);

- restraining President Milosevic from continuing or escalating attacks on the unarmed civilian population (Mr. President, are you and NATO unable to restrain Putin?);

- a significant limitation of the operational capabilities of Serbia to carry out armed actions in Kosovo due to a large reduction in the combat potential of the Yugoslav army (Mr. President, aren't the USA and NATO capable of similar limitations of Putin's capabilities?).

Ultimately, one of NATO's main goals was to inflict such losses on the Yugoslav army that would reduce the possibility of repression against the population of Kosovo (Mr. President, why are NATO and the USA afraid of inflicting similar losses on the Russian army?).

In the plan of the Allied Force operation, five phases of its implementation were laid:

1. zero phase – deployment of aircraft in the European theater of operations;
2. the first phase — establishing dominance in the air over the territory of Kosovo by banning flights and disabling the command subsystem (and later the entire air defense system) of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia;
3. the second phase is the destruction of military facilities in Kosovo and Yugoslav armed forces south of the 44th parallel that could support troops in Kosovo;
4. the third phase — expansion of the air operation to fight against the entire spectrum of military objects of great importance on the territory of the whole Yugoslavia;
5. the fourth phase is the movement of the Operation Forces and their strengthening (if this need arose from the situation).

Dear Mr. President, did the USA and NATO prove to be incapable of carrying out at least a few of the specified phases in relation to Russia?

Putin's war crimes are the genocide of the 21st century

I note that the crimes committed by Putin in Ukraine are not comparable to the crimes committed by Milosevic in Kosovo. What was discovered in Bucha, Irpin', Gostomel and other towns and villages of the Kyiv region after their liberation from the Russian occupiers cannot be defined and understood!

This is Auschwitz, Srebrenica, Rwanda, the Genocide of the 21st century combined! Thousands of peaceful people of different ages, children, minors have been killed, torn to pieces, tortured, raped (including 10-12-year-old girls and even babies!). People were shot with their hands and eyes tied (including children), killed with particular animalistic sadism. There are mass burials of several hundred in one grave, sprinkled with earth. Muscovite inhumans mocked the bodies of raped and shot girls and women while driving over them with tanks...

Bucha. Peaceful residents. Tortured and shot by the Russian occupiers.

Dear Mr. President, during the full-scale military aggression of Russia in Ukraine, at least 450 children were killed, more than 840 were wounded, about 240 were missing, among the dead there are babies who lived in our world for a day or two. Not American, but Ukrainian children... Tens of thousands of unarmed people were killed by Putin's inhuman bastards.

About 13 million Ukrainians left their homes, fleeing the war to other regions of Ukraine or abroad. According to the International Organization for Migration, more than 6.6 million people in Ukraine are internally displaced. This figure is 15% of the total population of Ukraine.

According to the UNO, 6.65 million Ukrainians left for Europe. Almost 4 million of them are mostly women and children who received temporary protection in European countries.

Putin understands only power

Dear Mr. President, tell me how many more human victims and destroyed civilian infrastructure Ukrainians must bring to you and NATO as a "sacrifice" until you provide us with the necessary amount of modern weapons to destroy the Russian aggressor and restore the territorial integrity of Ukraine in the borders of 1991, recognized by the whole world?

How long will you, NATO, Europe continue to chew gum, feeding us empty promises, giving us a teaspoon of weapons and watching how Putin kills and destroys Ukraine?!

Why did you, as the president of the most powerful country in the world, and your NATO (a zoo of "penguins" frightened by Putin) not defend Ukraine in the same way as it was with the defense of Kosovo?!

You and NATO were afraid of Putin's threats, blackmail and bluff...

In 2016-2017, the U.S. Republican Senator John McCain (now deceased. May he be remembered – he was a true friend of Ukraine and I was well-acquainted with him personally) repeatedly emphasized in 2016-2017: "Everyone knows that Putin is a bandit, a murderer, a butcher, a thug" and emphasized: "It is necessary to speak with Putin from a position of strength, as President Ronald Reagan did!"

Today's world and European leaders, including you, Mr. President, should learn from Reagan and McCain how to deal with people like Putin.

Mr. President, your Polish colleague, ex-president Lech Walesa, said that it was necessary to talk to Putin in a different way from the very beginning. To sit him down and to say, "You have rockets, but you know what we have? We just don't want to shoot you. We don't want to destroy you, don't make us use our abilities, you won't survive, boy. If you don't believe it, then look at our guns." "This is how you should talk to the president of Russia, not some kind of diplomacy," Valensa emphasized in an interview for the "Interia".

The former Commander-in-Chief of the Estonian Defense Forces and now a member of the European Parliament, Lt. Gen. Rigo Terras, said that the U.S.A. could end the war very quickly, in two weeks, if they wanted to. A pair of F-35 squadrons is enough to end the war with Russia, he stressed.

Dear Mr. President, a few months before the Russia's full-scale aggression, you repeatedly publicly warned the world and President Zelenskyy that Putin had decided to invade Ukraine, named the dates of the invasion, and even introduced him to the intelligence data received by the United States.

Why did you, knowing that there would be an invasion, not provide us with the necessary weapons for the defense of Ukraine? You were afraid...

On the day of the Russian invasion (February 24), your government offered Zelenskyy to leave Kyiv, that is, to flee from Ukraine to the United States, to avoid capture or assassination by the advancing Russian forces.

But the Ukrainian President, unlike Western "leaders", has iron Fabergés. He did not leave Ukraine, but asked you, dear Mr. President, to provide weapons for the defense of the country.

You delayed its delivery. Why? You were afraid...

During an address to the people on February 25, Zelenskyy said: "I will stay in the capital. My family is also in Ukraine. The enemy has marked me as their number one target. My family is my number two goal. They want to destroy Ukraine politically by destroying the Head of State.

We remain alone in the defense of our state. Who is ready to fight with us? I don't see those. Who is ready to give Ukraine a guarantee of joining NATO? Everyone is afraid. I say to all the partners of our state: now the fate of our country is being decided. I ask them: are you with us? They answer, they are with us. But they are not ready to take us with them into the Alliance. I asked twenty-seven European leaders whether Ukraine should join NATO. I asked directly. They are all afraid. And we are not afraid. Now the fate of the country depends entirely on our army, our security forces, all our defenders. And our people," summed up the President of Ukraine Zelenskyy.

The West gave the Ukrainians three days to surrender

Dear Mr. President, in the first months of the Russian aggression, you and the frightened NATO were afraid to provide us with real modern weapons for the defense of Ukraine.

They were afraid that it could fall into the hands of Putin's invaders. You gave us weapons for guerrilla warfare ("javelins", "stingers", ammunition), as at one time the USA armed the Afghan Mujahideens in the war with the Soviet Union. I know what it is...

The West was sure that Ukraine would hold out for three days and capitulate.

The Former Commander-in-Chief of the Defense Forces of Estonia, Lieutenant General Rigo Terras said in an interview with "Radio Liberty": "At the beginning of the full-scale invasion of Russia into Ukraine, Washington could have hoped for the Georgian scenario of 2008: a small conflict, few victims, a new government that is not too eager to the European Union. The USA could see this as a favorable scenario for Ukraine as well. I have seen signs that I believe demonstrate that the best case scenario for the Biden administration would be a 2008 Georgia conflict scenario. Biden even said that in the event of a small conflict, they would not intervene. However, his words were later corrected by the press service, as if he did not mean it that way. But I think that was the first hint. The second is that the American embassy fled Kyiv before the others, so they actually showed that they could surrender it. And the idea of the U.S. government to evacuate Zelenskyy was another sign. Therefore, I think that they thought like this: "three days, a new government in Ukraine, which will conduct some talks about neutrality, maybe joining the EU, but not NATO."

Dear Mr. President, did you really prepare the "Georgian scenario-2" for Ukraine and because of that you did not provide us with modern weapons for the defense of the country?

If the USA had provided us with the necessary amount of weapons in a timely manner, the Russian invaders would not have come to Kyiv, would not have captured the south of Ukraine, nuclear power plants, and would not have killed tens of thousands of peaceful, unarmed people.

Ukrainian women and children asked, begged you with tears in their eyes to close the sky over Ukraine. You promised something, but did not give air defense systems and long-range howitzers. Only light weapons were offered by the teaspoon. It was forbidden to use their shells and missiles against military facilities on the territory of Russia.

Lieutenant General Rigo Terras says: "Almost immediately after February 24, I even wrote a letter to NATO together with the General Philip Breedlove and some other generals that we need to create air superiority over Ukraine. NATO hadn't NOT approved this. It does not matter whether NATO does it as an alliance or NATO countries individually. I believe that we still need to control the airspace over Ukraine."

Dear Mr. President, why did you ignore the proposal of the generals of the NATO member country Estonia to close the sky over Ukraine? You were afraid...

It cost tens of thousands of human lives NOT to Americans or Europeans, but to Ukrainians. And I even don't talk about the destruction of the cities, towns and villages...

The Universal Spirit of Ukrainians — "Person of 2022"!

Excuse me, dear Mr. President, for a perhaps undiplomatic expression. But morons were those who offered us to surrender and even bigger idiots were those who decided to attack us. Neither those nor the others knew what UNIVERSAL POWER OF THE SPIRIT they awakened in the hearts of Ukrainians - WARRIORS OF LIGHT, ARMY OF CHRIST.

The Ukrainian people turned out to be the the only ones in the world who heroically and sacrificially oppose and defeat the satanic devilish horde of Putin's Antichrist!

As a faithful Catholic, you, dear Mr. President, must understand what is being said. You can read more about this in the analysis-research of the students of the Masters of the Far East OM-I-RA "Ukraine is the Messiah of mankind. The Bible and war"

(https://censor.net/ru/blogs/3355830/ukraina_messiya_chelovechestva_bibliya_i_voyina).

Zelensky: negotiations with Putin are impossible

When the frightened West saw what the "SPIRIT OF UKRAINIANS" was, it became afraid of the Armed Forces of Ukraine, which today is the strongest Army in Europe. Putin's "peace doves" began cooing about a ceasefire and peace talks with the murderer, war criminal, terrorist Putin.

But they received such a response from the Ukrainians (something like a letter from the Zaporizhzhya Cossacks to the Turkish Sultan – see here: <https://getmanat.org/pismo/>), that shocked you, der Mr. President, your administration and Europe.

On September 30, President Zelenskyy by his decree put into effect the decision of the National Security and Defense Council of Ukraine, which established the IMPOSSIBILITY of negotiations with the war criminal, terrorist and murderer Putin.

After signing the decree, Zelenskyy wrote on his Facebook page:

"The meeting of the National Security and Defense Council has just ended. We have a solution. The first is that only the path of strengthening Ukraine and expelling the occupiers from our entire territory will restore peace. We will walk this way. Second, Ukraine was and remains a leader in negotiation efforts. It was our state that always offered Russia to agree on coexistence on equal, honest, dignified and fair terms. It is obvious that this is impossible with this Russian president. He does not know what dignity and honesty are. Therefore, we are ready for a dialogue with Russia, but with another Russian president.

And thirdly, we must legally record all that we have already achieved in fact. It is in Ukraine that the fate of democracy is decided in the confrontation with tyranny" (<https://uk-ua.facebook.com/zelenskiy.official/posts/3180846545499033>).

"The massive shelling of Ukrainian cities during the G20 is Russia's humiliation of all leaders who supported the idea of "dialogue" with the aggressor. Remember: The Russian Federation does not offer negotiations, but issues territorial ultimatums. Any flirting with terrorists always ends with a rocket in a residential building," Mykhailo Podolyak, adviser to the head of the President's office, wrote on his social media page.

I would like to add that Putin not only wiped his blood-stained hands and feet on the initiators of the "peace dialogue", but he once again spat contemptuously at all international organizations (UNO, OSCE, PACE, EU, G20, G7) and demonstrated that he is not afraid NATO with its "dead" "Article 5", with which the Alliance "goes around like a fool with a bag".

Therefore, the decision of our President is absolutely correct!

Dear Mr. President, only the complete and unconditional surrender of the fascist terrorist Russia (like Nazi Germany in May 1945) will be accepted by the Ukrainian people and the Armed Forces of Ukraine, which are the only international subject of Ukraine. This is the only thing that Ukraine can agree to and sign the act of surrender with Russia in the presence of the leaders of the USA, Great Britain, Germany, France, Poland and other countries at their request, who will testify to the surrender of Moscow.

Washington. September 1, 2021. The first meeting of the Presidents of Ukraine and the United States Volodymyr Zelenskyy and Joe Biden in the Oval Office of the White House.

"SPIRIT OF UKRAINE" — "Person of 2022"

Dear Mr. President, our President Volodymyr Zelenskyy entered the list of the 50 most influential people in the world in 2022 according to one of the leading American agencies, "Bloomberg".

"... President Zelenskyy rejected the U.S. offers to help him escape at the beginning of the war and, with the help of nightly appeals on social networks, convinced Ukrainians that they would win. Zelenskyy, who rose to fame as an actor after playing the accidental president on a popular TV show, has used his talents as an entertainer to address to parliaments around the world and rally support for his nation's struggle. And it worked," the agency's website said.

The American publication "Politico" called the President of Ukraine Zelenskyy the most influential person in Europe, reports the website of the publication.

"Europe is changing. The continent is reviewing its strategic relations, taking defense seriously, rethinking policies in the sphere of trade, accession and energy security. In a broad sense, this is a rethinking of what it means to be European, and in many ways thanks to the Ukrainian comedian who became the President," the publication says.

The raters note that this is not the first time that Ukraine has been attacked by Russia, but before the full-scale aggression of the President of the Russian Federation the rest of Europe did little.

"The reason why everything is different this time is Volodymyr Zelenskyy, a figure whom Europe not only trusts, but also admires and follows – unlike the previous presidents of Ukraine," the article emphasizes.

It is noted that the European leaders who won the elections in their countries want to visit Kyiv as soon as possible to take a photo with the President of Ukraine.

At the same time, Zelenskyy was also able to convince the rest of Europe that its future is tied to Ukraine, which few believed before the full-scale Russian invasion.

"His communication skills were the key. His rhetoric sharply describes the ill-will of the Russian regime against which he is fighting, dispelling much of Europe's faith — especially in Berlin and Paris — that Moscow can be a partner," the journalists write.

The American magazine "Time" called the President of Ukraine Zelenskyy "The Spirit of Ukraine" and "Person of the Year 2022".

"Whether the battle for Ukraine fills one with hope or with fear, Volodymyr Zelensky galvanized the world in a way we haven't seen in decades," explained the magazine's editor-in-chief Edward Felsenthal.

"In the weeks after Russian bombs began falling on Feb. 24, his decision not to flee Kyiv but to stay and rally support was fateful. From his first 40-second Instagram post on Feb. 25 -- showing that his Cabinet and civil society were intact and in place -- to daily speeches delivered remotely to the likes of houses of Parliament, the World Bank, and the Grammy Awards, Ukraine's President was everywhere ", Felsenthal added.

The British edition of the "Financial Times" also chose President Zelenskyy as the person of the year according to its own version. According to the editors of the Financial Times, the president of Ukraine "has become the embodiment of the courage and resilience of the Ukrainian people."

Th Austria's main informational and political magazine "Profil" named the President of Ukraine Zelenskyy "Person of the Year" because of his influence on the fate of Ukraine and the West in general, the publication's website reports.

In the article entitled "Volodymyr Zelenskyy: The Man Who Shook the Free World" it is noted that this year the President of Ukraine Volodymyr Zelenskyy was chosen as the "Man of the Year" ("Mensch des Jahres"). At the same time, it is pointed out that Zelenskyi is perceived in the world "not only as a representative of Ukraine, which is under attack from Russia, but also as a person of the West."

"Anyone who considers themselves as a part of the West in thought, ideology and reality — and this applies to both the Republic of Austria and the news magazine "Profil" — comes to the inescapable conclusion: Zelenskyy is our person. And this is not due to a lack of originality, when the British newspaper "Financial Times", the American magazine "Time", and now the magazine "Profil" consider the same person to be the most important and influential one this year," the article says.

"Profil" indicates that Zelenskyy, after the full-scale Russian invasion of Ukraine, decided not to leave his country or surrender, instead ordering the Ukrainian army to resist. "With this act of bravery, he deserves respect," the article states.

At the same time, the President of Ukraine managed to convince allies in the West to help Ukraine and maintain this support.

Dear Mr. President, introducing you to the publications about the recognition of Zelenskyy as the "Person of the Year 2022", I draw your attention to the recognition by the American magazine "Time" as the person of the year precisely "SPIRIT OF UKRAINE" - the courage and resilience of the Ukrainian nation in the fight against the nuclear monster – the Russian Empire! It is for these reasons that "The Financial Times" chose the President of Ukraine as a "Person of the Year", the article says.

Zelenskyy noted: "It is an honor for me to represent the struggle of Ukrainians and the Spirit of Ukraine. This is the Spirit of the free world. And let's do everything so that our Spirit wins!".

The Sakharov Prize was awarded to the brave Ukrainian people!

In the European Parliament, the Sakharov prize presentation ceremony "For the Freedom of Thought" for 2022 was held, which was awarded to the courageous people of Ukraine represented by the President, elected leaders and civil society.

Among the laureates there are a Ukrainian volunteer, paramedic, former prisoner of war Yuliya Paevska ("Tyra"), head of the Center for Civil Liberties Oleksandra Matviychuk, Mayor of Melitopol Ivan Fedorov, representatives of the State Emergency Service of Ukraine, representative of the public resistance movement named "Yellow Ribbon".

The Sakharov Prize "For Freedom of Thought" is an annual award of the European Parliament, launched in 1988. The award is given for achievements in the following areas: protection of human rights and basic freedoms; development of democracy and defense of the rule of law; respect for the international legislation; protection of minority rights.

This year, the prize was awarded to the entire nation for the FIRST time, and Ukrainians deserve it more than anyone, said the head of the European Parliament, Roberta Metsola, at a press conference after the award ceremony.

"There was no one who deserved this award more than the awardees. The courageous people of Ukraine truly deserve this award. It is for all Ukrainians who are fighting on the ground, and for all those who were forced to leave Ukraine, for those who lost relatives, who are fighting for what they truly believe in. For the first time, this prize is awarded to the PEOPLE in the person of the President, elected leaders and civil society... We present the prize to every person, every citizen of Ukraine, who defends your country, freedom, your homes, your families," Metsola said.

"Ukrainians are now risking their lives for the sake of Europe and values. I know that the brave people of Ukraine will not give up. And I am sure that it cannot be otherwise," said the head of the European Parliament, Metsola.

Speaking at the presentation of the Sakharov Prize to the Ukrainian people, President Zelenskyy said: "We must act now, without waiting for the end of the war, to bring to justice all those who unleashed it, and to prevent any repetition of aggression. This will be the most effective protection of freedom, human rights, the rule of law and other values we share with you, which are embodied, in particular, by this award of the European Parliament – the Sakharov Prize."

The full text of Zelenskyy's speech can be found on the website of the President of Ukraine.

Paralyzed by fear of Putin's threats and blackmail

Dear Mr. President, the Kremlin's bloody dwarf looks at you and the European leaders' fright (eyes are big in fear!), laughs at you and launches regular massive missile strikes on peaceful cities and villages, kills children, women, old people, destroys hospitals, maternity homes, schools, kindergartens, residential buildings, wipes entire cities and villages off the face of the Earth, destroys critical civil infrastructure, leaves people without light, heat, water for the winter.

In front of your eyes, the bunker Putin deliberately commits the genocide of the Ukrainian people because they defend their freedom, their sovereign independent state, their right for a happy life. At the same time with their lives the Ukrainians save the frightened Europe and NATO.

And you, dear Mr. President, have been thinking for the tenth month whether to give Ukraine modern anti-aircraft/anti-missile systems, planes, tanks, missiles, which can be used to destroy military airfields, bases, equipment, manpower of the enemy on its territory, which is not prohibited by the international law of self-defense against an aggressor.

You and NATO are paralyzed by Putin's fear, threats and blackmail.

You are even afraid to admit that a Russian missile, no matter how, accidentally or deliberately provoked, hit the territory of the NATO member state of Poland and killed two Poles. After all, in such a case, the question of the application of Article 5 of NATO would arise. And yes, it is not even necessary to consider the 4th article.

Dear Mr. President, please admit it (at least to yourself): you are afraid of the defeat of the Russian so-called "second army of the world" and the complete unconditional surrender of imperial terrorist Russia as Nazi Germany in May 1945.

You are afraid of the collapse of the Russian Federation and the formation of independent national states on its ruins.

Swae Mr. President, the collapse of empires is a natural, objective historical process, whether you want it or not!

You are afraid of losing control over nuclear missiles, warheads, shells, mines, in the event of the collapse of Russia, which could fall to anyone who knows.

Dear Mr. President, if you and your NATO are still shivering with fear, please give us the necessary amount of modern weapons (without limiting their firing range and not by the teaspoon) and we ourselves will save the Civilization (including you) from nuclear conflagration, which the "bunker" Putin threatens to ignite. We will destroy Putin and the terrorist regime of the Russian Federation without pity or mercy! Ukrainians know how to ensure control over nuclear weapons so that they do not fall into the hands of extremists and terrorists.

Do not be afraid, dear Mr. President! Read the Gospel from Matthew (10:26) and...
EVERYTHING WILL BE OK!

Where is the promised Lend-Lease?

Dear Mr. President, on May 9, you solemnly, even pathetically, signed the law on Lend-Lease, which was promising for Ukrainians and was supposed to come into effect on October 1 (the beginning of the new fiscal year 2022-2023 in the USA).

Washington, May 9, 2022. The U.S. President Joe Biden signs "The Law on Lend-Lease for the Defense of Democracy in Ukraine from 2022".

"We support Ukraine. These steps are costly, but hiding from aggression is even more expensive. Such a program there was during the Second World War for the last time. Now Europe needs even more of our help," you said optimistically after signing the law.

The New York Times noted that "the Lend-Lease Act primarily simplifies the bureaucratic process of providing any weapons to the Allies in war. This will allow the United States to deliver weapons to Ukraine faster, removing various procedural obstacles and will give the Biden administration the opportunity to transfer huge tranches of weapons to Kyiv."

How Ukrainians rejoiced at this event! But the joy did not last long.

Christmas and New Year are coming soon. And you, dear Mr. President, have not delivered a single cartridge to Ukraine under the Lend-Lease conditions.

There is a widespread opinion that the U.S.A. do not provide arms to Ukraine as a part of the Lend-Lease, our country it uses other military aid programs that will help save the Ukrainian budget in the future.

Dear Mr. President, I ask you to listen to the proposals made by two heroic combat generals of the Armed Forces of Ukraine Valeriy Zaluzhnyy and Mykhaylo Zabrodsky.

Valeriy Zaluzhnyy

Mykhaylo Zabrodskyy

Hero of Ukraine, First Deputy Chairman of the Parliamentary Committee on National Security, Defense and Intelligence, Lieutenant General Mykhaylo Zabrodskyy emphasized: "The existing numerical composition of forces and means of air defense physically does not allow to create an echeloned air defense over the entire territory of the country. Currently, we have limited opportunities to effectively intercept ballistic missiles, fight cruise missiles and attack UAVs, the absolute majority of which on the route fly at extremely low altitudes of 50-100 meters. In this altitude range, the available anti-aircraft missile systems can cover a small area of the country. That is why, when we talk about the interception of 70-90% of the enemy's missiles, it is only thanks to the skill of the personnel of our Air Force. Additionally, the capabilities of detecting air targets and targeting interceptors can be provided by air traffic control systems that implement NATO's Link-16 information exchange standards. We need an aviation "lend-lease". These can be multipurpose fighters of the blunt F-16 modification Block 50/52 or even Block 40/42".

In an interview with the British magazine "The Economist", the Commander-in-Chief of the Armed Forces of Ukraine, Lieutenant General Valeriy Zaluzhnyy, stated: "I know that I can defeat this enemy (Russia – Author). But I need resources. I need 300 tanks, 700 BMP, 500 howitzers. Then, I think, it is absolutely realistic to reach the finish line on February 23."

Dear Mr. President, the USA and NATO have enough of these and other weapons, they are gathering dust in warehouses. You can hand it over to Ukraine painlessly and without any weakening of your defense capabilities.

Will you say again that it is not necessary to "provoke and annoy Putin"?

Military experts claim that if the USA and NATO member countries had provided Ukraine with the necessary amount of modern offensive weapons in April-May (which the Ukrainian side requested), then the Armed Forces of Ukraine would have liberated the entire occupied part of mainland Ukraine by the autumn and would already be standing on the isthmus with Crimea, destroying Russian military facilities on the territory of the occupied Crimea and the Black Sea Fleet in Sevastopol and Novorossiysk.

And most importantly, losses among Ukrainian military and civilians would be much smaller. Many times! This is how the arithmetic works out, dear Mr. President!

Mr. Biden, please don't repeat Trump's mistakes

Let me remind you that in January 2018, President Trump did the same about NOT applying sanctions to persons from Putin's inner circle, the so-called "Kremlin black list" ("Kremlin report").

In the article entitled "Blood games: the "fig leaf" of American sanctions against Russia" ("Ukrayina Moloda" newspaper dated 02.07.2018) I talked about the political games of Putin and Trump, the U.S. and Russian special services and their "specific" contacts and agreements in connection with the Russian aggression against Ukraine and the downing of the Malaysian passenger plane MH17 by the Russian crew with the anti-aircraft missile system "Buk" by the 53rd Kursk anti-aircraft missile brigade of the Russian Air Defense Forces (see more here:

<https://www.umoloda.kiev.ua/number/3271/180/120326>).

The content of the article was an open letter to U.S. President Donald Trump.

Dear Mr. President, you should remember those events. But we will briefly remind Americans and Ukrainians of them so that they do not forget.

On the eve of the announcement of the "Kremlin report", on January 27, 2018, three heads of Russia's special services Aleksandr Bortnikov (FSB), Sergey Naryshkin (SZR) and Igor' Korobov (GRU), who are under international sanctions and are prohibited from entering, arrived in Washington incognito at the same time to the USA. For two days long, they held secret talks with CIA Director Mike Pompeo, Director of National Intelligence Dan Coats and other U.S. officials.

After the visit of the heads of the Russian intelligence services, an "unknown high-ranking official" of the President Trump's administration made changes to the "Kremlin list".

This was announced by one of the co-authors of the "Kremlin report", Swedish economist, expert of the Atlantic Council Anders Oslund, saying that "the published list with changes is a mockery of the American sanctions against Russia".

According to him, the initial version of the "Kremlin list" contained the names of Russian officials and oligarchs who obtained their wealth illegally through their closeness to President Putin and through contacts with the Kremlin (60 people. — Author).

American senators and U.S. intelligence officials consider the visit of the heads of Russia's special services two days before the announcement of the "Kremlin list" to be incomprehensible, according to which the expansion of sanctions against the Russian Federation never took place.

The Senate Democratic Leader Chuck Schumer accused the Trump administration of neglecting the Countering America's Adversaries Through Sanctions Act 3364, which requires the imposition of sanctions against Russia, and demanded clarification of the goals and content of negotiations with the heads of Russian intelligence services in Washington.

Former U.S. intelligence officials said it was "highly unusual" to have three Russian intelligence chiefs in Washington at the same time, who are barred from entering America as they investigate possible Russian interference in the 2016 U.S. presidential election.

In addition, an official U.S. intelligence report published in January 2017 stated that the Russian FSB and the GRU controlled a hacking campaign aimed at the 2016 U.S. presidential election.

The former head of the CIA mission in Moscow, Stephen Hall, noted: "I can't think of anything like this in the last 15 years."

At least two rhetorical questions arise.

First: Could three heads of Russia's special services, who are under international sanctions and banned from entering the United States, come to America incognito and conduct secret negotiations with the heads of the CIA, FBI and high-ranking officials of the State Department without the knowledge and permission of the President of the United States, Donald Trump?

Second: could an "unknown high-ranking official of the administration of the President of the United States" without a mandate or permission from Trump independently make changes to the "Kremlin list"?

The answer to both questions is unequivocal – NO!

Taking into consideration, that President Trump has been opposed to Act #3364 from the beginning, which he had to sign only because it was almost unanimously voted for by the Congress and the Senate, as well as a secret visit to the United States on the eve of the publication of the "Kremlin report" of the heads of the Russian intelligence services, which may have played a decisive role, we can draw the following conclusion.

President Trump was given some "special wishes" and quite "influential" materials from President Putin through the heads of Russia's special services.

And he, in violation of the specified law, was forced personally or on his behalf by "an unknown high-ranking official of his administration" to take measures, as a result of which the original "Kremlin list", changed at the last minute on January 29, was not made public, as stated by the co-author of the "Kremlin report" Anders Oslund.

A comparative analysis of Trump's congressional and Treasury Secretary Steven Mnuchin's statements to the Senate Banking Committee and comments from experts and people close to the administrations of Presidents Trump and Putin, as well as confidential information I have obtained, suggest that some trade agreements have been reached between Trump and Putin taking into account the fact that in a month Putin have "re-elected" himself for the third time as the president of Russia for the next six years.

There is also a third question: did the heads of the FSB, SZR and GRU of Russia communicate with Trump himself, and what materials and wishes from Putin did they convey to Trump, which influenced him so much when making a decision on the "Kremlin report"?

The factual data presented in the article indicated that the U.S. President Donald Trump could have been recruited by the KGB of the USSR in his youth "for perspective" and explained his pro-Russian policy and "kissing Putin's ass".

In the article, I predicted that Trump would end his career with impeachment. What actually happened.

The publication of the text of the July 2019 telephone conversation between Trump and Zelenskyy was the beginning of the impeachment proceedings against President Trump. The transcript of their conversation was made public on the eve of their meeting on September 25, 2019, on the sidelines of the 74th session of the UN General Assembly.

Yuriy Shvets, a former personnel officer of foreign intelligence of the KGB of the USSR, who at one time worked in residency in Washington, told the British "The Guardian" that the 45th President of the United States, Donald Trump, was recruited by the Soviet and later Russian special services as an "asset" for 40 years.

The publication notes that in Craig Unger's book "American Kompromat: How the KGB Cultivated Donald Trump, and Related Tales of Sex, Greed, Power, and Treachery, publication date January 26, 2021) says that Trump first got "on the radar" of the KGB back in 1977, when he married Czech model Ivana Zelníčková. Then his candidacy began to be worked out by the special services of the former Czechoslovakia under the supervision of the KGB of the USSR.

According to Shvets (who has the U.S. citizenship), Donald Trump was willing to rebroadcast anti-Western propaganda.

"This is an example of how people are recruited when they are still students, and then they occupy important positions. Something similar happened with Trump. They thoroughly studied his personality, understood what kind of person he was. The KGB knew that he was extremely vulnerable intellectually and psychologically, prone to flattery," Shvets emphasized.

The circumstances of Trump's recruitment, whom from the special services of the Soviet Union, and then Russia, he had connections with, and how he was "merged" into the press can be viewed on Yuriy Shvets' YouTube channel "How Trump was recruited", videos #19 and #20:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5vPb5aklcrA> (#19).

To the above, I will add that in August of this year, FBI agents conducted a warrant search at home of the former President Trump in Mar-a-Lago and seized 11 selections of classified documents, including those marked "top secret", as well as those intended for viewing only in special state institutions". These are about 13,000 documents, 103 of which were classified, and 18 were top secret.

As reported by "The Washington Post" citing its own sources, some of the secret documents seized by the FBI from Donald Trump's home and private club in Mar-a-Lago contained "highly sensitive" intelligence data on Iran and China. If released to third parties, the information could reveal intelligence-gathering practices that the U.S.A. want to keep hidden from the world, people familiar with the matter said.

At least one of the documents seized by the FBI describes Iran's missile program. Other documents describe "highly sensitive" intelligence work aimed at China, the sources said.

"The Washington Post" previously reported that one of the documents seized during the FBI search dealt with the military defense of a foreign country, including its nuclear capabilities.

Some of the seized documents detail top-secret U.S. operations that are so closely guarded that many high-ranking national security officials have not been briefed on them, the newspaper reported. Only the president, certain members of his cabinet, or officials close to the cabinet could authorize government officials to know the details of these special access programs.

According to CNN, the U.S. Department of Justice has two known active investigations into the former president, one into an attempt to overturn the 2020 presidential elections and "January 6, 2021" (the storming of the Capitol), and another one into the handling of presidential documents, including classified documents that Trump took home.

The U.S. Congress asked the CIA to assess the damage caused by Trump's storage of classified documents.

A special committee of the House of Representatives has recommended criminal charges against Trump for storming the Capitol on January 6, 2021.

Dear Mr. President, you know a lot more about Trump than I do. Don't repeat his mistakes. Your future, as far as I know, depends on it...

Therefore, I will briefly tell you about the wisdom that was passed on to me by my Teacher, the Tibetan monk Tsering, with whom I underwent spiritual practices and training in Eastern martial arts (kung fu – wushu).

It was a long time ago, more than 50 years ago. Once the Master said: "History does not know (does not tolerate) the conditional mode. Looking from the top of our time at historical events and those who stood behind them, giving them an assessment, we often use conditional constructions, and what if he had done so or else..."

However, remember: the present, which tomorrow will already be the past, can open the future. What it will be depends on you, don't just become a slave to circumstances. Do everything that depends on you and the world will change for the better, it will become kinder, - emphasized the Teacher.

Tibetan wisdom teaches: "LIFE is only three days. Yesterday, today and tomorrow. YESTERDAY has already passed and we cannot change anything about it. TOMORROW has not yet come and may not come. Therefore, try to live TODAY so that TOMORROW (which will also be the past) was not ashamed and you did not regret about YESTERDAY..." – remarked the Teacher with a gentle smile in his eyes...

At the end of the training, the Master said: "The seeds that I sowed in you will germinate only when you are ready for it, like the soil in which they are planted, so that they germinate and give a harvest."

I advise today's politicians: it's never too late to learn, and it's never a shame. Meditate on the wisdom of my Master. If people were guided by it, world tragedies could be avoided...

An unpleasant reminder...

Dear Mr. President, I apologize for the unpleasant reminder of how you, as vice president under President Obama, in the spring of 2014, together with him, refused to provide weapons to Ukraine when Russia seized Crimea and part of the territory of Donbas. This is for a better understanding of the current situation with the lease that you have signed.

The then Chairman of the Verkhovna Rada, Acting President of Ukraine Oleksandr Turchynov appealed to President Obama for help. Obama sent you and the State Secretary Kerry to him. You explained to Turchynov that the Budapest Memorandum is an exclusively political declaration and does not carry any obligations and stated: "Mr. Turchynov, we respect you, we love you, and we will help you. At the diplomatic level."

Turchynov asked you for the armed help. You haven't given Ukraine a single helmet, a single protective device. You even haven't given ant clothes.

You, Obama and Kerry were saying: "We don't want to piss off Putin, we don't want to piss off a nuclear Russia."

Mr. Biden, who annoyed Russia when it attacked Crimea, Donbas? Turchynov asked you. When Turchynov announced mobilization across the country, Kerry called him and started asking: "Why are you provoking Russia?".

Turchynov answered him that "we are not provoking, we are defending our country, we have no other choice." That was the end of the "U.S. aid"...

The formula for saving Civilization

Taking into account your international political experience, you know no worse than I do that when politics is done heartlessly, impiously, trampling moral values, it brings grief and suffering to people in one country.

When, in this way, great politics are made for the sake of billions of fortunes, the satisfaction of one's own political ambitions means that the lives of people on the entire continent are put to nothing.

And when the geopolitics of the powerful of this world enters the arena, they want to redistribute the spheres of political influence, to establish at their discretion a new world order, control over the natural resources of life support the world wars begin, a sea of human blood flows, hundreds of thousands, millions, tens of millions are sacrificed human lives...

Mr. President, after the end of the First World War (1914-1918), in which almost 20 million soldiers and civilians died, 23 million soldiers and officers were injured and maimed, the Masters of the Far East came up with the Formula for the salvation of the earthly civilization. According to their conviction, it should change the methods of waging war and eventually allow to end it completely.

The formula was promulgated in 1924 (quote): "Today, not thousands, but millions are saying, 'No war!'" Mankind has realized the fact that one more great battle will be tantamount to its total destruction, and quite a few people argue that it is better to let the ruler or the whole people who declared war will disappear, but the civilization will survive" (Baird Spalding. Life and Teaching of The Masters of the Far East, 1924).

The world did not listen... Then two psychopaths, Hitler and Stalin, entering into a secret conspiracy, started the Second World War (1939-1945), dividing sovereign Poland in September 1939. The war took the lives of more than 71 million people (military and civilians), almost 100 million military and civilians were wounded of various degrees of severity.

Dear Mr. President, in March 1946, the former British Prime Minister Winston Churchill gave a famous speech in the American state of Missouri, in which he warned future generations "about the danger of Russian aggression and tyranny."

He drew attention to the fact that World War II could have been avoided. "There has never been a more preventable war in history than the one that has just laid waste to a vast area of our planet," Churchill declared and warned against repeating the mistake — we couldn't stop Hitler, but we must stop the Soviet Union.

The great politician Churchill emphasized: "... Soviet Russia craves the fruits of war and the unlimited expansion of its power and ideology. From what I have seen of our Russian friends and associates during the war, I conclude that they admire nothing more than strength, and respect nothing less than weakness, especially military weakness."

Winston Churchill's words turned out to be prophetic...

With a full-scale military invasion of Ukraine, the "crazy man with a nuclear button" Putin essentially unleashed the Third World War. The causes of wars are similar. Hitler's international policy of "appeasement" (the Munich betrayal of the Czechoslovak Republic in 1938) led to World War II.

Constant "concerns" of the USA and Europe in order to "not anger and provoke Putin" after Russia's attack on Georgia in 2008 and the annexation of 20% of its territory, and later – the occupation of Crimea and parts of the Donetsk and Luhansk regions in 2014 ended with Russia's full-scale military aggression against Ukraine on February 24, 2022 — essentially the beginning of the Third World War.

The instigators of the Second World War were Hitler and Stalin and their follower Putin, who launched the Third World War with a full-scale military invasion of Ukraine

Today's psychopath Putin (the Hitler-Stalin of the 21st century) threatens the world with the nuclear war to satisfy his political ambitions. At a press conference on December, 9 in Kyrgyzstan, he stated that he allows the concept of a pre-emptive nuclear strike to be included in the Russian military doctrine.

Dear Mr. President, the results of repeated independent studies prove that Putin is a "collective murderer" who is supported by at least 70% of the Russian population, who is a subject to physical destruction along with the "bunker bloody dwarf"!

This is another confirmation of the correctness of the Formula of the Masters of the Far East, how to prevent Putin from unleashing a nuclear war that will lead to the destruction of Civilization.

Over the past six years, I have repeatedly reminded the world community about the need to apply the Formula for saving the world — the PHYSICAL DESTRUCTION of Putin and his terrorist fascist regime.

The justification of the legal grounds for the destruction of the President of Russia Putin, the list of crimes against peace, human security and international legal order, terrorist acts and war crimes committed by him, the conclusions of experts about his psychological and mental state, which has clear signs of schizophrenia and pedophilia, I have repeatedly sent (May 2017 , October 2018, January 2021) to the General Committee and Committee on Legal Affairs of the UN, PACE, European Parliament, OSCE and NATO, where I am known as a people's deputy, member of PACE, general of the Ukrainian special service.

In March 2014, I officially sent the materials about the crimes committed by President Putin and the Russian military command to the Prosecutor General of Ukraine to initiate a criminal case, take them into custody and declare them an international wanted person.

Since 2016, I have been asserting and emphasizing now that Putin, for the sake of saving Civilization, must be PHYSICALLY DESTROYED, like Osama bin Laden, if the "bunkered Kremlin dwarf" does not stop the war in Syria and Ukraine, does not release the occupied Ukrainian territories and voluntarily surrenders to the international justice (and he will never do this voluntarily!).

With the beginning of full-scale military aggression against Ukraine, I addressed with an open letter to Russian officers "Save the world — kill Putin!".

The full text of the appeal is here:

<https://ukrreporter.com.ua/golovne/statti/spasy-myr-ubej-putyna-obrashhenye-grygoryya-omelchenko-k-ofytseram-rossyynam.html>

My proposal to kill Putin was supported by Republican Senator Lindsey Graham and ex-commander of the British Army, Colonel Richard Kemp.

Senator Graham said that the easiest way to end Russian aggression is to physically eliminate Putin.

Colonel Kemp emphasized that the West should not rule out the possibility of killing Putin. In his opinion, the destruction of Putin could help save thousands of lives, so NATO and the Western allies should not categorically deny such a possibility.

The American psychiatrist, professor of the University of California, James Fallon, based on a visual analysis of Putin's behavior, statements, conversations and facial expressions, came to the conclusion that the president of the Russian Federation, Putin, is a PSYCHOPATH WITH SADIST SIGNS.

Dear Mr. President, I note that Osama bin Laden, who was eliminated on the orders of the U.S. President Obama, whom you were the vice president of, was a much smaller threat to the world than Putin is today.

General Qassem Soleimani was killed by order of your predecessor, ex-president Trump, who commanded the elite Quds Force of the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps, which reports directly to the Supreme Leader of Iran, Ayatollah Khamenei (the same terrorist as Putin) and specializes in terrorist operations abroad. Suleimani was called the second person in the state after Ayatollah Khamenei and predicted that he would be the future president of the country. Mr. President, how do you understand that you and your administration wanted to prevent the Armed Forces from liquidating the head of the General Staff of the Armed Forces of Russia, General Valeriy Gerasimov, when he arrived at the front in late April to directly command the troops in Donbas?

At first, Washington deliberately hid from Kyiv its intelligence information that Gerasimov had arrived at the front, fearing that an attempt on his life could lead to war between the United States and Russia.

Lord, how timid you all are! You are already afraid of your own shadow!

I note that the Ukrainian intelligence learned earlier from the American intelligence that Gerasimov was located near Izyum in the Kharkiv region and was preparing a secret operation to destroy him.

After the "debate" that the assassination of the head of the General Staff of the Russian Armed Forces was inappropriate "from a geopolitical point of view", Washington took, in my opinion, a treacherous step, asking the leadership of the Armed Forces of Ukraine to stop the attack on Gerasimov.

The Ukrainian military informed the Americans that they had already launched an attack on the general's position and could not stop it, "The New York Times" reported on December 17.

It was not possible to carry out an attempt on General Gerasimov. Literally a few minutes after the Armed Forces launched the first rockets, he and several Russian generals who were with him left the command post in "fire order".

I would like to point out that during the missile attack on the territory where Gerasimov was supposed to be, more than a hundred Russian soldiers were killed, among them dozens of senior officers – commanders of structural units of Russian military units.

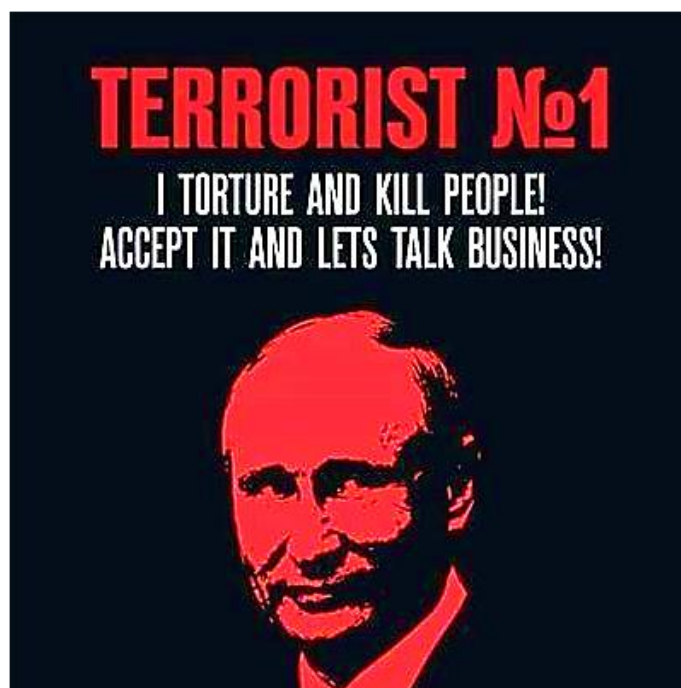

As the head of the military counterintelligence department in the past, I declare that this COULD NOT have been the good fortune of General Gerasimov. Convinced that the American side managed to warn him to flee immediately, fearing an escalation with Russia. I can't find any other explanation. Accidents DO NOT HAPPEN under such circumstances!

When will the USA recognize Russia a state sponsor of terrorism?

I have repeatedly suggested to the UNO, PACE, OSCE, EU, NATO, the leaders of the world's leading countries (including Trump) to use truly deadly — "hellish" financial, economic, international, diplomatic and legal sanctions (which began to be applied only after a full-scale military aggression and then a teaspoon at a time). They would have led Russia to financial and economic collapse a long time ago and could have prevented a major war against Ukraine.

Only in October-November of this year, the PACE international institutions, the NATO Parliamentary Assembly, the European Parliament, and a number of European countries recognized the Russian Federation as a "terrorist regime", "terrorist state", "state-sponsor of terrorism" and "a state that uses the means of terrorism".

Famous politicians said: "Putin is a constant and deadly threat"; "Putin is a legitimate military target"; "Putin and Russia are war criminals."

"Save the world - kill #1 terrorist Putin!"

Dear Mr. President, why are you still afraid to recognize Russia as a state sponsor of terrorism?

In May, the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine appealed to both houses of the U.S. Congress to recognize the Russian Federation as a state sponsor of terrorism. President Zelenskyy regularly addresses you and the whole world community with the same call.

In July, the Senate unanimously passed a resolution calling on the State Department to declare "Russia a state sponsor of terrorism" because of its actions in Ukraine, Georgia, Syria, and Chechnya, which have resulted in the deaths of countless civilians. But neither you nor Secretary of State Anthony Blinken formally approved the resolution so that it became legally binding and came into effect.

Dear Mr. President, how much more does Russia have to kill the civilian population, destroy housing estates, schools, kindergartens, hospitals, and critical infrastructure facilities, so that you finally recognize the Russian Federation as a state sponsor of terrorism and impose sanctions against it, provided for by the U.S. law?

Do you not understand that the imperial Russia has NO right to future existence in its present form and borders?

By its very existence, Russia as an empire of the planetary evil is a real threat to the existence of Civilization.

Destroy once and for all!

The terrorist fascist Russia today is a contagious dry branch on the Tree of Human Life, a cancerous tumor on the body of planet Earth.

THE RUSSIAN EMPIRE MUST BE DESTROYED ONCE AND FOREVER!

Let me remind you that in the First and Second World Wars, the aggressor was defeated and forced to surrender. This is inevitably waiting for Putin and the terrorist regime of the Russian Federation!

SO, MAYBE YOU, DEAR MR. PRESIDENT, AND MANKIND, TO SAVE YOURSELF, IT'S TIME TO LISTEN TO THE MASTERS OF THE FAR EAST?!

NATO Secretary General Stoltenberg says that the victory of Russia in the war against Ukraine will mean the defeat of the Alliance. At the same time, he is afraid that the Russian-Ukrainian war "will not turn into a big war between NATO and Russia," which "will involve more countries and become a full-fledged war in Europe."

DELAY IN DESTROYING THE ENEMY LEADS TO DEFEAT, my Teachers taught me.

Faith in Jesus Christ and our indomitable UKRAINIAN SPIRIT, which the world recognized as the "Man of the Year 2022", help the Ukrainian people and its Armed Forces in defeating imperial Russia.

We will gather the war criminals of Russia (Putin, the military-political leadership and the "Russian peace") all over the world and like "dry branches, we will throw them into the fire and burn them" (Gospel of John: 15:5-6).

In the Gospel of Matthew (7:15-21) it is said: "A bad tree will bear bad fruit (like the Muscovites of their inhuman bastards – Author). A bad tree cannot bear good fruit." "So by their fruits you will know them."

"Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire" (Gospel of Matthew (7:19)).

We will do the same with the Muscovites-invaders, until the last one burns in the Fire of the righteous.

We will BURN the dry branch on the Tree of Life, the cancerous tumor on the body of planet Earth, the center of the world evil — the Russian Federation, and we will disperse the ashes from it.

"I do care..."

Dear Mr. President, I don't care what the reaction will be in the world, and even more so in Russia, to my public letter to you.

Our spiritual father Taras Shevchenko, whose monument stands in Washington, wrote:

*I don't care if
I live in Ukraine or not.
Who will remember or forget
Me in the snow in a foreign land -
It doesn't matter to me.
But I really do care,
When Ukraine falls asleep
By evil people, cunning ones,
And when it wakes up in the fire
Completely robbed...
Oh, I really do care about it.*

Dear Mr. President, we will deal with our idiots and traitors in power. And let's deal with it hard! Those in power who are already trying on the crown of winners and believe that "winners are not judged" are very mistaken. We will judge according to the laws of the wartime! The punishment will be inevitable! The highest fair justice in Ukraine is the People and the Armed Forces!

More than five years ago (March 29, 2017), I wrote: "Ukraine, as an independent state, is at a historic turning point. The coming years will be decisive for Ukraine — either it, breaking the myths and stereotypes imposed on it, will revive its true history and past greatness and become an equal state among the strong countries of the modern world; or will leave the historical arena as an independent state and be torn apart. Ukrainians are not given a third way. I know, the Ukrainian nation is UNCONQUERABLE!".

(see her: <https://www.umoloda.kiev.ua/number/3140/188/110150/>).

"Today, the Ukrainian nation is saving the world from a nuclear fire. We will persevere in the war with the Russian aggressor and win Victory over Putin's fascism. The future of Ukraine is to be the spiritual and intellectual center of a united Europe from the English Channel to the Urals. We are worth it!"

(12/14/2016. See here:

<https://www.umoloda.kiev.ua/number/3092/188/106844/>).

I affirm even today: IT WILL BE THIS WAY!

The student of the Masters of the Far East OM-I-RA that I mentioned commented on the rocket attack of the "bloody Kremlin dwarf" in a post on Facebook:

"What Ukrainians have done now will reverberate throughout the ages!

Ukraine and the Ukrainian people entered the stage of planetary events.

And each of us plays our role on the world stage.

Choice should be done by the Ukrainian people.

It determines now the course that this civilization will take.

There is a possibility of either total disaster or a perfect golden age.

The Great Strength of the Spirit of Ukraine and the determination of Ukrainians to win Victory!

No matter how painful and difficult it is, no matter how this war is dragged out at the cost of the lives of our soldiers, women, old people, children, without supplying us with enough weapons and constantly ordering a "word" about peace negotiations with the enemy, the Ukrainian people will not back down.

Even when we are told "NO", Ukraine continues to fight and knock on all earthly and heavenly doors, day and night, to achieve the final crushing Victory over Mordor, protecting the World from war and nuclear catastrophe, turning the Age of Aquarius into the Golden Age of Mankind."

Christmas and the New Year are coming.

I congratulate you, dear Mr. President and the American people on this Bright Holiday! I wish prosperity, peace, love, happiness, well-being to every American family and a joint Victory over Putin's terrorist Russia! (Congratulations here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=y7DIOSVJAB4>).

I sincerely thank the American people for supporting and helping Ukrainians in the deadly war with Antichrist Putin and his satanic army. And we will definitely WIN this battle!

Ukrainians will fulfill the will of the Heavenly Father – they will win the VICTORY of LIGHT over darkness, GOOD over evil, TRUTH over wrongdoing! The last empire of planetary evil, the Russian Federation, will be DESTROYED. It will be this way!

I finish writing the letter as I started it — in a bomb shelter, during Putin's nighttime attack by Iranian kamikaze drones. There is a destruction of residential buildings and infrastructure facilities. Unfortunately, there are wounded and victims...

The UNO Secretary General Antonio Guterres, under pressure and threats from Putin, did not send officials to Ukraine to check Russia's use of Iranian drones, thereby failing to comply with the Security Council's decision to conduct an investigation.

Lord, how scared you are that you are afraid to implement even the decisions of the UNO Security Council! Everyone is afraid of the "bloody Kremlin dwarf", except for Ukraine, which bravely and sacrificially resists Putin and saves the world from him.

So can you all be reduced to a fortune teller so that she can roll out your fear with a chicken egg or pour out wax? What else should be done with you cowards so that you stop being afraid of the shadow of the dead Putin?

Mr. President, find an opportunity to visit the Japanese city of Nagasaki, which suffered the American atomic bombing in August 1945. And then — Mariupol, Kharkiv, Bucha, Irpin', destroyed by Putin, at your choice...

The morning of December 19 came. Ukraine meets Saint Nicholas, who brings Victory to Ukrainians in his bag!

Dear Mr. President, do not consider what was written as a reproach and criticism directed at you. This is a frank conversation between two gray-haired men with extensive life, political and international experience (I am also an army and law enforcement officer), who know the pain of losing relatives and loved ones...

I firmly shake your hand!

GOD SAVE AMERICA AND UKRAINE!

DEATH TO PUTIN AND TERRORIST RUSSIA!

Sincerely,

Hryhoriy Omelchenko,
